Italian tenor Andrea Bocelli is an international superstar whose music has bridged classical and pop genres. He is one of the most successful classical to mainstream crossover.

Bocelli showed a great passion for music as a young boy. He started piano lessons at age 6 and later learned to play the flute, saxophone, trumpet, trombone, guitar, and drums. He was born visually impaired, with congenital glaucoma, and at the age of 12, Bocelli became completely blind, following a brain hemorrhage resulting from a soccer accident.

His big break came when a demo tape landed in the hands of Luciano Pavarotti. He remains one of the world's most popular singers today.
